A PAGE IN HISTORY ~ Pages selected for 2012 Electoral College ~

RICHMOND, VA – The State Board of Elections announced that James William Davis, Rachel Harrington, and Neil Alexandra Judd will serve as pages for the meeting of the Electoral College on December 17, 2012.

The duties of a page for the Electoral College include acting as an usher, assisting electors in signing of documents and the delivery of correspondence within the House Chamber.

James “Will” Davis, of Midlothian, is the son of Traci and James Davis. Will attends Tomahawk Middle School in Midlothian and is a Patrol Leader in the Boy Scouts, Troop 1879. He enjoys his two Leopard Geckos named Cleo & Leo, and his “favorite and only” sister is McKenzie.

Rachel Harrington, of Glen Allen, is the daughter Sherrie and David Harrington. Rachel attends Holman Middle School in Glen Allen. She is an avid reader and enjoys the arts. Rachel’s favorite artist is Taylor Swift and she dances with the group “Dance Destination.” Additionally, she enjoys quiet time with her favorite four legged friend Fluffy.

Neil Alexandra Judd, of Lynchburg, is the daughter of Pam and Chris Judd. Neil attends Jefferson Forest High School. She is a member of her school marching band and is studying the art of Karate. Miss Judd plans to pursue a career in pediatric occupational therapy.
