CLIENT: Virginia Department of Elections
TITLE: "Photo ID law"
LENGTH: :60 radio
DATE: 10-10-2014

ANNCR: Attention Virginia voters: Don't forget your photo ID when you go to vote this year. Virginia law now requires all voters to show an acceptable photo ID at the polls. These IDs include Virginia DMV-issued photo IDs and driver's licenses, U.S. Passports, employer-issued photo IDs, student IDs from a Virginia college or university, as well as photo IDs issued by the United States, the Commonwealth of Virginia or a local Virginia government. If you do not have a photo ID, please contact your local voter registration office as soon as possible to apply for free Virginia Voter Photo ID Card. If you don't have your photo ID on Election Day, you will still be able to vote a provisional ballot! If you do, you must provide a photo ID to your registrar by the Friday after the election for your vote to count. To learn more about this important law or to check your voter status, please contact your local voter registration office, or visit elections dot Virginia dot gov. This message is brought to you by the Virginia Department of Elections.
