SBE Encourages Preparation For Constitutional Amendments

RICHMOND, VA – There will be two constitutional amendment questions on the ballot for all registered voters. The State Board of Elections requests that voters make an effort to become familiar with these proposed amendments prior to arrival at the polling place, which will reduce the wait in line and make the voting process more efficient. The proposed amendments may be found in their entirety on the State Board of Elections website at www.sbe.virginia.gov and also in the following major publications:

Daily Press
El Tiempo Latino
Richmond Times Dispatch
Roanoke Times
Virginian Pilot
Washington Examiner
Washington Post
Washington Times

Additionally, the text of the constitutional amendments was printed in all publications with a circulation of at least 7,000 within the Commonwealth of Virginia.

In-person absentee voting continues through this Saturday, November 3, 2012. Please check the websites of the local voter registration offices or call ahead to determine the hours of operation in specific localities. To be eligible to vote absentee it is necessary to be registered to vote and meet one of the 19 qualifying absentee reasons. Please remember to bring an acceptable form of identification to the voter registration office if planning to vote absentee.
