

★ VIRGINIA ★
DEPARTMENT of ELECTIONS

A voter in the Commonwealth has the option of casting a write-in vote for any office on the ballot in a general or special election § 24.2-644(C). The voter may write-in the name of any person. During canvass, the electoral board determines the total number of write-in votes for the office. If any of the threshold conditions described in the Code of Va. § 24.2-671 is met, the board will determine separate totals for each write-in candidate. Separate totals for write-in candidates for President of the United States are only determined if the write-in candidate also filed a Joint Declaration of Intent to be Write-In Candidates for President and Vice President. The list of those who filed is below:
