How Candidate Names May Appear on the Ballot

Candidate names for all offices must use these criteria:

Criteria
First name or initial	First name or initial or familiar form of first name
Middle name or initial	Middle name or initial or familiar form of middle name (Initials may be used in lieu of either the first or middle name or both)
“Nickname” (optional)	Must be in double quotation marks, if used
Last name	Last name as it appears on the candidate’s voter registration record
Suffix	Must be used if included on the candidate’s voter registration record
Notes
Title: Do not include a title before or after the name. Examples of titles include: Rev., Dr., Mrs., Mr., etc.
First or Middle Name: The first or middle name must be the candidate’s given name, not a spouse’s. EXAMPLE: Mary L. Jones not Mrs. John W. Jones
Length: The full candidate name must fit on a single line of the ballot.
Exceptions: If the candidate name cannot meet the above requirements because it will not fit on a single line or there is no middle name – or for any other reason – contact the Department of Elections for acceptable accommodations.
Examples
Candidate’s full name is Robert Eugene Williams, Jr. ( not all possible combinations are represented )
Robert Eugene Williams, Jr.	Robert E. Williams, Jr.	Robert Gene Williams, Jr.
Rob Eugene Williams, Jr.	Rob E. Williams, Jr.	Rob Gene Williams, Jr.
