15.1 CHAPTER ORGANIZATION

Recounts do not occur often enough to be considered a routine part of an election year. Please take the opportunity, however, to refresh your knowledge of the laws and regulations that govern the circumstances and manner in which a recount can occur.

§15.2 outlines that a candidate cannot petition the court for a recount unless the election resulted in a margin of victory not more than 1 percent. (If either the winner or the apparently unsuccessful candidate ran as a write-in candidate, a recount can be requested as long as the difference is not more than 5 percent.)

§15.2.3 discusses the timeline for filing a recount petition, where to file the recount petition, and what components a petition for a recount must contain. §15.2.5 summarizes rules and procedures for conducting the actual recount when authorized.

§15.2.6 applies only to recounts of elections for presidential elections, and §15.2.7 applies only to recounts of referendums. §15.2.8 adds that if the apparent winner subsequently loses as a result of the recount, that apparent winner may contest the election. §15.2.10 provides essential reminders regarding the proper, secure handling of the election records used to conduct the recount.

15.2 RECOUNTS

15.2.1 Recount Laws

The recount laws found in the Code of Virginia¹ apply to “all elections held in the Commonwealth,” as per §24.2-800(A). That includes primaries, general or special elections for offices, and referenda or questions before the electorate.²

¹ See the Code of Virginia §§24.2-800 - 802 (setting forward the procedures for recounts).

² See the Code of Virginia §24.2-800(A).

Virginia election law does not allow a losing candidate in a party-conducted (non-primary) nomination process to request a recount of non-primary results. The rules or bylaws of that party, or the "Call" and rules for the non-primary nominating event may permit such a process.

15.2.2 Recount Determined by Margin of Victory

15.2.2.1 Recount Only if Difference is No More than 1 Percent

A petition for a recount may be filed only in the event that there is a difference of not more than one percent (1%) of the total vote cast for the apparent winner and any apparently defeated candidate, as certified by the Department of Elections or the electoral board.³

15.2.2.2 Recount for Write-In Candidate Only if Difference Not More Than 5 Percent

A petition for a recount may be filed when there is a difference of not more than five percent (5%) of the total vote cast for the apparent winner and any apparently defeated candidate, if either such candidate was a write-in candidate.⁴

15.2.3 Petition for a Recount

A recount cannot be requested until the election is certified. As per §24.2-801, a “petition for a recount of an election, other than an election for presidential electors, shall be filed within 10 days from the day the [Department of Elections] or the electoral board certifies the result of the election.”

Certified at local level	Deadline is 10 days from the day results are certified
Certified by State Board of Elections (SBE)	Deadline is 10 days from the day the SBE certifies results

15.2.3.1 Where and How to File

For local offices, the petition must be filed in the circuit court of the county or city in which the candidate being challenged resides. Here, the losing candidate has 10 days from day the results were certified to file a petition with the appropriate court.⁵

For statewide offices, the petition must be filed in the Circuit Court of the City of Richmond. Here, the losing candidate has 10 days from day the results were certified to file a petition with the appropriate court.⁶

15.2.3.2 What to File

The petition to the appropriate court must contain:

1. The certified results of the election and

³ See the Code of Virginia §24.2-800(B).

⁵ See the Code of Virginia §24.2-801.

⁶ Id.

2. A request to the appropriate court to have the ballots in the election recounted.⁷

In a referendum, a copy of the petition shall be served on the governing body or chief executive officer of the jurisdiction in which the election was held.⁸

15.2.4 A Recount Court

15.2.4.1 Selecting the Recount Court

A recount court (hereafter the “Court”) will be established (see Va. Code § 24.2-801.1) once the petition is appropriately filed. The Court will consist of three judges: the Chief Judge of the Circuit Court of where the recount petition was filed and two (2) judges appointed by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Virginia. The Court will preside over the entirety of the recount process.

15.2.4.2 Standards

The State Board of Elections adopted new standards for the conduct of recounts in 2019. The Chief Judge of the circuit court or the full recount court may, consistent with State Board of Elections standards, resolve disputes over the application of the standards and direct all other appropriate measures to ensure the proper conduct of the recount.⁹ These standards include the Recount Step by Step Instructions and Ballot Examples for Hand Counting Printed Ballots. For uniformity, the Department of Elections has directed that the ballot examples are to be used whenever ballots must be hand counted.¹⁰

Regulation Note

1VAC 20-80-20: Recounts and Contested Elections

The standards for recounts and contests are governed by chapter 8 of Title 24.2.

- The procedures issued by the State Board of Elections are to be implemented as uniformly as possible throughout the entire recount zone.
- The State Board of Elections' guidelines for hand-counting ballots shall be used when manually counting ballots.
- When a recount request is filed, ELECT must send copies of instructions corresponding to the types of ballots and equipment used in each county or city involved to the appropriate clerk of court and local electoral board.
- To prepare for the recount, circuit court clerks are required to:
 1. Secure all printed ballots and other election materials in sealed boxes
 2. Store these boxes in a vault or room not open to the public or to anyone other than the clerk and his or her staff
 3. Keep the room or vault locked at all times except when necessary for the clerk to access the room, and
 4. Certify that these security measures have been taken.

After a recount has been requested, the local electoral board must recommend to the court a location and estimated personnel for completing the recount, a complete list of all officers of election who served in the election to be recounted, with the political party they represented at that election, the precinct they served at, their address and phone number, and an indication of which officers served as chief or assistant chief officers, and a list of the members of the electoral board and the political parties they represent. The Commissioner of ELECT may provide recommendations and information prior to the preliminary hearing, and can request information from the electoral board of the county or city involved, which that board must provide. counting printed ballots (20-80-20(G)). The State Board of Elections and the Department of Elections are to provide any other assistance requested by the court (20-80-20(H)).

15.2.4.3 Uniform Procedures Required

The recount procedures to be followed throughout the election district shall be as uniform as practicable, taking into account the types of ballots and voting devices in use in the election district.¹¹

15.2.4.4 Preliminary Hearing

Within five days (for elections for presidential electors) or seven days (for all other elections) after the petition for a recount is filed, there shall be a preliminary hearing held by the Chief Judge to hear motions and set the recount procedures, subject to review by the full court.¹² At this hearing, the Chief Judge will also “review all security measures taken for all ballots and voting and counting machines and direct, as he deems necessary, all appropriate measures to ensure proper security to conduct the recount,” as per §24.2-802(B). It is highly suggested that the general registrar and/or electoral board attend this hearing to provide guidance to the court as necessary.

¹¹ See the Code of Virginia §24.2-802(A).

¹² Id., at (B).

15.2.4.5 Court Hearing

After the full court is appointed, a hearing will be held to dispose of all motions and make a final determination of the rules of the recount procedures.¹³ ELECT recommends that the general registrar and/or electoral board attend this hearing to provide guidance to the court as necessary.

15.2.5 Rules and Procedures for Conducting the Recount

The following rules and procedures are presented in summary form and also apply to a recount pertaining to a referendum or question before the electorate as discussed below.

Best Practice

Please also note that you can go online to the Forms Warehouse, in the Recount folder, to access two PowerPoint presentations – “Recounts 101” and “Recounts 201” – which have proven very helpful for learning and training purposes. For a more detailed accounting, please review §24.2-802 in its entirety.

15.2.5.1 How are Ballots Counted?

First, ballots will be scanned by recount officials. Prior to the recount, the locality was required to program the voting machines to return or set aside ballots with (1) overvotes, (2) undervotes, or (3) write-ins.

Second, these returned ballots will be hand counted. The recount team will also hand count any ballot that was hand counted on election day.

Third, if the recount team cannot agree, the ballot will be challenged and handed to the Court for adjudication. The Court will adjudicate the validity of the ballot and the voter’s intent, and can only take this action on ballots that have been challenged by recount officials. Additionally, the Court will certify the results of the recount.

15.2.5.2 Party Representatives

Each party to the proceeding can choose an equal number of officers of election who served during the election to serve as recount officials and alternate recount officials.¹⁴ As per §24.2-802(C), this number “is to be fixed by the court and be sufficient to conduct the recount within a reasonable period.” On the request of any party to the recount, the court shall allow that party to appoint one representative observer for each team of recount officials. The representative observers must have an unobstructed view of the work of the recount officials. The expenses of its representative observers shall be borne by each party.¹⁵

¹³ Id.

¹⁴ See the Code of Virginia §24.2-802(C).

15.2.5.3 Other Officials

Teams of recount officials, substitutes, and observers are designated to undertake the count and determine the vote according to the provisions set forth in the code and the SBE standards.¹⁶ The Court is responsible for supervising the recount. It may do so by requiring delivery of “any or all pollbooks used and any or all ballots cast at the election,” (as per §24.2-802(D)) or it may assume supervision indirectly through the selection of recount coordinators and officials.¹⁷ The court may select pairs of recount coordinators to serve for each county or city in the election district that shall be members of the county or city electoral board and represent different political parties.¹⁸

15.2.5.4 Procedures for Different Ballot Types

For paper ballots, hand count the ballots using the Ballot Examples for Hand Counting Paper or Paper-Based Ballots for Virginia Elections and Recounts.¹⁹

For optical scan tabulators, rerun all machine-readable ballots through an appropriately programmed tabulator.²⁰ Any ballots set aside as overvotes, undervotes, or containing write-ins; any ballots not accepted by the tabulator; or any ballots for which a tabulator could not be appropriately programmed must be hand counted using the Ballot Examples for Hand Counting Paper or Paper-Based Ballots for Virginia Elections and Recounts.²¹

If the total number of optical scan ballots counted by the ballot reader plus the total number of ballots set aside by the scanner do not equal the total number of ballots rerun through the scanner, the recount officials must count all the ballots by hand using the Ballot Examples for Handcounting Paper or Paper-Based Ballots for Virginia Elections and Recounts.²²

15.2.5.5 Concluding the Recount

The recount officials must write down and submit to the Court the number of valid ballots cast in the precinct for each of the two candidates in the recount, or for or against the question. If the number of votes recorded on the voting machines is greater than the number of names on the pollbooks of persons voting, the figures recorded on the machines themselves shall be accepted as correct.²³

²² Id.

²³ See the Code of Virginia §24.2-802(D)(3).

15.2.5.6 Certifying the Recount

At the conclusion of the recount, after allowing the parties to visually inspect any questioned ballots and after hearing the arguments of the parties, the Court will rule on the validity of all questioned ballots and votes.

By an appropriate order, the Court will certify, to the Department of Elections and other appropriate electoral boards, the vote for each party to the recount or the vote for and against the question. The Court will declare the winning candidate or question accordingly.²⁴ The Certification of Recount 802-CC form should be used.

15.2.5.7 In the Event of a Tie

If the certified results of the recount determine a tie, the Court must issue a writ for a special election.

15.2.5.8 Appealing the Recount

The recount proceeding shall be final and not subject to appeal.²⁵ However, a candidate who was originally declared the winner and loses as a consequence of a recount, may file a written complaint or a notice to contest the result, as applicable, within ten days of the entry of the order of the recount Court.²⁶ Procedures are set forth under the provisions governing Contested Elections.²⁷

15.2.5.9 Costs

The costs of the recount are assessed against the counties and cities comprising the election district if one of the following occurs:

- The candidate petitioning for the recount wins
- The petitioners for a referendum win
- There is a difference of not more than one half of one percent of the total vote, prior to the recount, between the two candidates

When none of the above circumstances occurs, the costs are assessed against the petitioning candidate.²⁸ The manner in which costs can be assessed against the petitioner and are calculated is discussed in detail in the code.²⁹ Any petitioner who may be assessed costs must post a bond with the Court in the amount of ten dollars per precinct in the area subject to the recount.³⁰

15.2.6 Special Procedures for Presidential Elections

Because federal law sets a deadline for seating of presidential electors³¹, the General Assembly in 2003 enacted legislation³² to ensure that any recount in an election for presidential electors in Virginia would be concluded no later than six days before the date set for the meeting of the presidential electors (so that Virginia's electoral votes could be counted).³³ Detailed procedures for the filing of a petition for such a recount are set forth in §24.2-801.1. Other deadlines (such as the date for the holding of the preliminary hearing)³⁴ are shortened. Most importantly, any contest of such election would proceed concurrently, and not wait upon the results of the recount. The procedures and deadlines for the contest are in §24.2-805.

15.2.7 Referendum recounts

15.2.7.1 Filing the petition

A petition for a recount involving a question or referendum may be filed only in the event that the difference in the vote for and against is not more than fifty votes or one percent of the total vote, whichever is greater, as certified by the State Board of Elections or the electoral board.³⁵

Should the vote difference fall within this range, fifty or more voters qualified to vote on the question may appeal from the determination of the State Board of Elections or electoral board by signing and filing a petition for a recount.³⁶ The petition for a recount must be filed within ten days from the day the appropriate electoral board certified the results of the election.³⁷ In the case of a statewide referendum, a petition for a recount must be filed in the Circuit Court of the City of Richmond.³⁸ In the case of any other referendum, a petition for a recount must be filed in the Circuit Court of any county or city comprising a part of the election district.³⁹

A petition for a recount must set forth the results as certified by the State Board of Elections or the electoral board and must also request that the Court recount the ballots. A copy of the petition must be served on the governing body or chief executive officer of the jurisdiction in which the election was held within ten days after the State Board of Elections or electoral board has certified the results.⁴⁰

³¹ See 3 U.S.C. §§5 (“If any State shall have provided...for its final determination of any controversy or contest concerning the appointment of all or any of the electors of such State, by judicial or other methods or procedures...such determination...made at least six days prior to said time of meeting of the electors, shall be conclusive...”) and Z (“The electors of President...of each State shall meet and give their votes on the first Monday after the second Wednesday in December next following their appointment...”).

15.2.7.2 Conducting the Recount

The procedures for conducting the recount with respect to a question or referendum are the same as those set forth above in summary form with respect to elections for office.⁴¹

15.2.8 Contesting a Recount

Any candidate originally determined the apparent winner in a primary or other election, but who subsequently loses as a consequence of a recount, may contest the election pursuant to the applicable provisions of a contested election discussed below.⁴²

15.2.9 Disposition of Election Records After a Recount

Official election records conveyed to the court in a recount proceeding by election or recount officials or by another Clerk of Court, must be secured and retained by the Clerk who received them, until the recount is concluded, and afterwards until the time for initiating a contest for that same election has expired and no contest is pending.⁴³

Afterwards, if the Clerk of the court where the recount was conducted is in possession of official election records conveyed from another county or city, not normally part of his jurisdiction, the Clerk must return those records to the Clerk of Court for that county or city. The election records should otherwise be handled the same as all other records for that election under appropriate laws or regulations.⁴⁴

15.3 CONTESTS

15.3.1 Overview

§15.3 presents the second part of this chapter; §15.3.2 outlines how unsuccessful candidates can contest the results of an election, §15.2.3-5 cover the exceptions applicable to certain elections and §15.2.6 concludes by explaining the bond requirements for candidates contesting elections for statewide office in the Commonwealth.

⁴¹ See the Code of Virginia §24.2-802.

⁴² See the Code of Virginia §24.2-814.

⁴³ See Recount Step by Step Instructions (SBE-802-SBS), pg. 38. See also the Code of Virginia §§24.2-668(A), 24.2-669, and 24.2-802(A); and Virginia Administrative Code 1VAC20-80-20(C) (detailing procedures for how clerks of circuit courts in possession of official election records and materials should secure them).

⁴⁴ See Recount Step by Step Instructions (SBE-802-SBS), pg. 38.

15.3.2 Applicability and who can contest

An unsuccessful candidate in most general elections, special elections, or primaries can initiate a contest. The rules and procedures governing a contested election vary depending upon the office for which the election was held. Within the Code of Virginia, §24.2-803 relates to contests of elections for General Assembly; §24.2-804 to contests of elections for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and Attorney General; §24.2-805 to contests of elections for presidential and vice presidential electors, as well as primaries for U.S. Senate and for statewide offices; and §24.2-806 to contests of all other primaries and elections.⁴⁵ The basic procedures described below apply to General Assembly elections.⁴⁶

15.3.3 Exceptions

Contests of elections for the U.S. Senate or U.S. House of Representatives are conducted under the procedures of the respective Houses.⁴⁷ Virginia law does not cover this subject. Additionally, Virginia law does not provide procedures to contest the results of a presidential primary.⁴⁸ More generally, Virginia election law does not contain any provisions for a losing candidate in a party-conducted nomination process other than a primary to contest the results. The Party Plan, rules or bylaws of that party, or the "Call" and rules for the nominating event may provide for such a party-conducted process.

15.3.4 Procedures governing a contested election to the General Assembly

15.3.4.1 How to Initiate Contest

To initiate a contest, the losing candidate (contestant) first must give written notice of his intent to contest the election, both to the party who has been declared the apparent winner (contestee) and the Clerk of the appropriate House. Additionally, the contestant must post a surety bond in the amount of $100 for each precinct contained in whole or in part of the district contested. If the contestant wins the contest, the bond shall be returned. If the contestant loses the contest, the bond shall be forfeited to the extent of the contestee's actual and documented costs of defending against the contest.⁴⁹

15.3.4.2 Contestant must Provide Notice within 30 days of election or 3 days after recount

Notice must be submitted within thirty days following the date of the election or three days after the conclusion of a recount, whichever is later. The notice must state the grounds upon which the contest will be based. These grounds must include either or both of the following:

- Objections to the contestee's eligibility based on specific allegations

⁴⁵ See the Code of Virginia §§24.2-803 – 24.2-806.

⁴⁶ See the Code of Virginia §24.2-803.

⁴⁷ See U.S. Const. Art. I, §5 ("Each House shall be the Judge of the Elections, Returns and Qualifications of its own Members...").

⁴⁸ Presidential primaries are a fairly recent development in Virginia (first held in 1988 as a one-time event, then put into state law in 1999).

⁴⁹ See the Code of Virginia §24.2-803(B).

- Objections to the conduct or results of the election, accompanied by specific allegations that, if proven true, would have a probable impact on the outcome of the election⁵⁰

15.3.4.3 Contestee Must Answer

Within ten days of service of this notice, the contestee must file a written answer with the Clerk of the appropriate House. The answer must admit or deny the allegations or state that he has no knowledge of particular allegations. Additional defenses may be included. This answer must be signed by the contestee and verified by oath or affirmation.⁵¹

15.3.4.4 Depositions

Either party, following service of the notice, may take depositions. The contestant must complete depositions within twenty days and the contestee within thirty days, following the date of the notice of intent to contest the election. Written affidavits by a witness may be submitted if stipulated to in writing by both parties. Either party may apply to the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the county or city in which the party resides, or the Clerk shall issue subpoenas for witnesses.⁵²

15.3.4.5 Subsequent Proceedings

A written petition must be filed with the clerk of the appropriate house within ten days of the filing of the notice of intent to contest the election if contesting a November general election. If the election was held on a different date, the written petition may be filed within ten days of the filing of the notice, or within two days of the commencement of the next General Assembly session, whichever is later.⁵³ The Clerk shall refer the record⁵⁴ to the Committee on Privileges and Elections which, unless another Committee is designated, shall hear the contest, conduct an investigation, and report its findings and recommendations to the house for action.⁵⁵ The house may declare either party the winner or declare the election void and order a writ of election.⁵⁶ Should it be determined that there is a tie vote, there shall be a determination by lot;⁵⁷ however, no recount shall be permitted.⁵⁸ Should the house find, by a two-thirds vote, that the contest was brought in bad faith, the contestant shall be ordered to pay the contestee any amount above the posted bond in order to reimburse the contestee for his actual and documented costs in defending against the contest.⁵⁹

⁵⁸ See the Code of Virginia §24.2-803(H).

⁵⁹ See the Code of Virginia §24.2-803(H).

15.3.5 Exceptions applicable to contests in other elections

15.3.5.1 Contest of Election of Governor, Lieutenant Governor, or Attorney General

Notice of intent to contest must be filed with the Clerk of the House of Delegates. The filing of a petition to contest must be within two days of either the commencement of a Special Session of the General Assembly convened expressly to hear the contest, or of the beginning of the next scheduled regular session of the General Assembly, whichever occurs first.⁶⁰ At the time of filing the notice, the contestant shall post a surety bond of $10 per precinct in the state. A final determination will be made by both houses of the General Assembly sitting jointly, presided over by the Speaker.⁶¹

15.3.5.2 Contest of Election of Presidential and Vice Presidential Electors, United States Senate or, Primary for Statewide Office

The proceedings shall be in the Circuit Court of the City of Richmond before a special court composed as specified in §24.2-805.

Notice of intent to contest an election for presidential or vice presidential electors shall be filed no later than 5:00 p.m. on the second day after the day the Department of Elections certifies the results. A copy of the complaint shall be served on each contestee within five days after the Board's certification. The contestee's answer shall be filed within five days after the complaint is served on him.

The contest shall not wait upon the results of any recount. The proceedings shall be completed at least six days before the fixed time for the meeting of electors.⁶²

15.3.5.3 Contest of Primary for the U.S. House of Representatives, State Senate, House of Delegates, or any County, City, Town or District Office, or Contest of Election of any County, City, Town or District Office

The contest is conducted in the Circuit Court of the county or city in which the challenged candidate resides, before a special court composed as specified in §24.2-806. Specific rules governing the procedures for contesting any of these elections are covered in detail under §§24.2-807 - 813.

15.3.6 Bond

Only candidates contesting elections for Governor, Lt. Governor, Attorney General, the House of Delegates, or the State Senate are required to post bond in order to contest the election.⁶³ There is no bond requirement for other candidates filing contests.

⁶⁰ The Code includes a two day deadline for these offices because the new terms for these offices begin at noon on the first Saturday after the second Wednesday in January, when the regular session of the General Assembly convenes.

⁶¹ See the Code of Virginia §24.2-804.

⁶² See the Code of Virginia §24.2-805.

⁶³ See the Code of Virginia §§24.2-803(B) and 24.2-804 (requiring posting of bonds for contests of elections for General Assembly, Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and Attorney General).
